1.0 Introduction

1.1 Why we have this code of conduct

Our Code of Conduct sets out the expected standards of behaviour and the way we conduct business.

At the core of this Code of Conduct are our values:

Health Safety and Wellbeing First

- First and foremost, creating a Safe and Healthy Environment for everyone, all of the time.

Operate with Transparency

- We communicate openly, honestly, and respectfully in all our dealings.
- We share and set expectations with our clients, customers, suppliers, and colleagues.

Take Ownership

- We take ownership and hold ourselves accountable at all times.
- We lead by example.
- We seek feedback and learn from our mistakes to improve.

Do The Right Thing

- We act with honesty and integrity and hold ourselves to a high level of ethical standards.
- We operate with respect and consideration and everyone is valued.

Deliver Excellence

- We collaborate with our customers and clients and provide options and advice using our experience and innovation to deliver projects beyond expectations.

Our values and this Code of Conduct guide us in doing the right thing.

The Code is where we find direction on how to conduct ourselves as Sword employees when we interact with each other, our clients and customers, the communities in which we operate, and other stakeholders.

All employees must take personal responsibility for ensuring that our commitment to our values and this code of conduct is delivered.

1.2 Who this code applies to

All Sword employees at all levels including temporary workers must adhere to the principles and requirements contained in the code.

Further we are committed to working only with third parties whose standards are consistent with our own. This includes clients, customers, subcontractors, and suppliers.

Subcontractors, suppliers, consultants, intermediaries, and agents must follow the relevant portions of our Code in their dealings with us.

1.3 Failing to Comply with our Code

Sword will take seriously any failure to comply with this code.

The consequences of failing to comply can be very serious including fines, penalties, even criminal liability for individuals or the company.

Any failure to comply with this Code or its supporting policies will be considered to be misconduct. Any breach will be fully investigated, and appropriate action taken which may include disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

1.4 Reporting a concern

Sword is committed to conducting business with a high degree of integrity and transparency and this depends on a culture in which everyone feels comfortable and confident enough to report instances of non-compliance with our Code.

If you believe that you have experienced or witnessed behaviour which does not comply with the Code, you have a responsibility to report it.

In the first instance you should report the matter to your Manager. If it is a more serious matter or you are not comfortable in discussing it with your Manager, please contact the companies HR Manager. Alternatively, if you wish to remain anonymous please contact the HR Manager in writing.

Any reports received will be investigated promptly and we will take appropriate action based on the findings of our investigation. No-one will face recriminations including any disciplinary action if they have legitimate grounds for believing that there has been a breach of this code of conduct even if subsequently the investigation finds that there is no evidence to substantiate the report as long as the report was made in good faith.

If you have provided your details when raising the concern, then a report will be provided to you of the investigation and actions taken.

If you are a manager, you have a responsibility to ensure that reports of suspected or known misconduct are adequately addressed.

2.0 Health Safety and Wellbeing First

2.1 Our principles

We care for about our people and the people affected by our activities.

First and foremost, creating a Safe and Healthy Environment for everyone, all of the time.

We strive to prevent accidents and promote a healthy and safe work environment for our employees, people working with us and anyone else who may be affected by our activities.

We expect third parties with whom we work including clients, customers, subcontractors, and suppliers to have high standards of health and safety and consistent with our own.

We will work with others to improve health and safety standards and share best practice.

We will lead by example.
